

IN DECEIT

You know the feeling when
You wake up in the morning from a dream
A dream that haunts you 'til the end
Dream you never even wished to end...

Things now bouncing all around your
Lost in thought head
Leaving marks like ardent folds
Leaving stains of untuned notes

Keeping them inside
Hiding from sharpening daylight
Things could never be revealed
You could never be relieved

Moundings in the flawless she
Reflections of the things unreal
Side of you was never seen
Smoothen in deceit

Blessed silence,
Dead leaves crushed
Under your feet
Shards that you
Took but could

Never reveal

Moundings in the flawless she
Reflections of the things unreal
Side of you was never seen
Smoothen in deceit

Things that you
Always have
Wanted to say
Things for the
One you could
Never betray

Moundings in the flawless she
Reflections of the things unreal
Side of you was never seen
Smoothen in deceit

Sacred tides broken in the night
Vows that weren't to last for Naked eyes trying to praise those lies, but Curtains all worn out now

Faked sighs spoken in the night
Shouts that weren't to hear for
Blinded minds trying to see those cries, but

Words are all worn out now

Blessed silence

Dead leaves crushed under your feet and

Shards that you've taken but

Cannot reveal them and

Dreams that were there only

See but not touch for

Making you fake for surviving

The eruption

Things that you

Always have

Wanted to say

Things for the

One you could

Never betray

Moundings in the flawless she

Reflections of the things unreal

Side of you was never seen

Smoothen in deceit

Silent groaming

In the damping dawn of

One still hoping

To be released from burden

Of the dreams that
Were never meant to come true

In the daylight
In the break of light

Silent moments
In the damping dawn when
Breaking voices
Will be released from burden

Of the words that
Were never meant to tell the truth

In the daylight

Blessed silence,
Dead leaves crushed
Under your feet
Shards that you
Took but could
Never reveal

Moundings in the flawless she

Side of you was never seen

Smoothen in deceit

Blessed silence,

Dead leaves

Reflecting belief

Shards and hope

Smoothen in deceit

A dream that haunts you until the end

A dream you never even wished,

Will now end
